

Effective Communication

Eastern Idaho Technical College is committed to communicating effectively with individuals who have communication disabilities. The goal is to ensure that communication with people with these disabilities is equally effective as communication with people without disabilities.

Individuals who have communication disabilities and need assistance should contact the Disability Resources and Services Coordinator in Room 586 or by calling (208) 535-5468.

April 2015